

A KALEIDOSCOPE OF YOUTH WORK TRAINING

Wednesday 30 September 2009
Dynamic Earth, Edinburgh

YouthLink
Scotland
The national agency for youth work

National Seminar on Youth Work Training

Supported by

The Scottish Government

Dynamic Earth, Edinburgh Wednesday 30 September 2009 – 10.30-3.45pm

Programme starts at 10.30 with coffee on arrival from 10.00am

As the national agency for youth work, YouthLink Scotland is committed to the development of a clear and strategic approach to youth work training.

This National Seminar on Youth Work Training, supported by the Scottish Government, provides an opportunity for the youth work sector to engage in a national discussion on workforce development with key stakeholders and to share practical knowledge on youth work training routes.

- Information and input on the full range of training opportunities on offer for volunteers, paid staff, work-based and full-time learners.
- Round table discussion on the future of youth work training
- Launch of new training opportunities
- Stalls and information
- Interactive conferencing and recording software.

ASPECTS OF THE DAY...

Key Inputs from:

- Scottish Government
- Lifelong Learning UK
- CLD Standards Council
- YouthLink Scotland

Useful guides to youth work training from:

- SQA
- Universities and Colleges
- Local employers and trainers
- Voluntary Sector employers/training providers
- Local Authority employers/training providers
- National bodies

COST: £60.00 (+VAT £69.00)

HOW TO REGISTER:

Visit, www.youthlinkscotland.org to book online.

CLOSING DATE:

18 September 2009

STALLS:

Interested in providing a stall?
Please contact:
ssymington@youthlink.co.uk

YouthLink
Scotland
The national agency for youth work

Supported by

